About Te Tumu Paeroa

E totoka ai te tumu o te papatipu hei oranga mō Te Iwi Maori, o mua, o naianei, o anamata hoki. Ko Te Tumu Paeroa tēnei, te kaitiaki, kaitaunaki, kaiwhakawhanake i te mana o ngā whenua Māori, huri noa.

So that the foundations of ancestral lands may be solid, benefitting Māori from our past, present and future alike. This is Te Tumu Paeroa, guardian, support and advancer of the mana of Māori land everywhere.

Role Purpose

Te Tumu Paeroa is committed to supporting Māori to achieving tino rangatiratanga over their whenua. We do this by providing education and employment opportunities for graduates from a range of backgrounds and disciplines so they can have life-long careers in Māori land administration.

The purpose of the graduate position is to rotate through key functional teams over the course of the 12 month programme to provide a broad range of experience. Rotations are set depending on business needs and the graduate's career aspirations. Each rotation will include a mix of on-the-job learning, in addition to work allocation typical for the area in which they rotate.

Rotations in this programme can include Trust & Property, Client Services, Finance, Human Resources, IT, Communications & Marketing, Risk & Compliance, Project Management and Asset Management. The graduate is responsible for performing work allocated and contributing to relevant activities and projects as required.

We're offering graduates the opportunity to gain a rich experience in Māori land administration, and develop a life-long career that will help whānau to enhance and protect their whenua now and for generations to come.

Graduates will also have a mentor who is grounded in tikanga Māori and able to recognise the graduate's unique skills and talents throughout their journey in our organisation.
